

BOYS' INSTITUTE, PATRON AND MEMBERS.

The first of a number of boys' clubs, one for every Assembly District in the city, projected by Municipal Court Judge Hoffman and City Chamberlain Patrick Keenan, is soon to be opened at No. 333 East Third street, and will be known as the "Boys' Institute." This club has been incorporated and is equipped for a membership of 1,000 boys. There will be manual training classes, a fine reading-room, gymnasium and assembly-rooms for social gatherings and entertainments. Judge Hoffman believes that more good can be accomplished by bringing boys off the streets into better clubs than in any other manner. He believes it will prove an irresistible temptation to boys to be good.

FOUGHT DUEL WITH KNIVES

In Quarrel About Woman Two Young Men Met in Lot and One Was Seriously Wounded—Assailant Under Arrest.

As a result of a duel with knives Michael Colasurda, twenty-four years old, of No. 32 Colgate street, Jersey City, is in the City Hospital there, with a stab wound in the abdomen that will probably prove fatal. Angelo Littora, twenty-three years old, of No. 423 Second street, is under arrest, and the police say he has admitted that he did the stabbing.

The two men met last night in a saloon frequented by Italians at Colgate and Second streets. It is said they quarreled about a woman and agreed to fight a duel with knives. They went to a marsh lot accompanied by a number of men who were in the saloon. After a few passes with their long knives Colasurda received a wound in the abdomen and fell to the ground. He was carried back to the saloon and Dr. Piskowski was called to attend him. After the bleeding had been stopped the wounded man was taken to the City Hospital. Littora fled, but was arrested several hours later by Police Captain Caprio. The police say he acknowledged having stabbed Colasurda, but denied the latter agreed to fight a duel with him.

TWO "HONEST J'S" UP IN TWELFTH.

"Joe" Scully Presents "Jake" Bausch as Tammany Candidate for Coroner's Office.

The Democrats of the Twelfth Assembly District, presided over by Joseph P. Scully, member of District-Attorney Jerome declared to be one of the "few honest Tammany leaders" have presented the name of Jacob E. Bausch for nomination as Coroner for the Borough of Manhattan. "Honest Jake Bausch" is the name the Coroner is referred to by his larger family of constituents, and as he is the political protégé of Leader Scully, the friends of both declare that the ticket would be represented by the two "honest J's"—"Jake" and "Joe."

"Jake" Bausch, who served as Coroner on the Board of Coroner, is known throughout the entire east side, where he has a strong following. When twenty persons were killed in the Curran explosion, in 1891, Bausch furnished District-Attorney Philbin with proof that the laws had been violated, with the result that the members of the company were indicted. District-Attorney Philbin afterward commended Bausch for his work during the inquest.

STAGE HELD UP BY HIGHWAYMAN.

Express Messenger Shot—Two More Bandits Then Flee on Vehicle.

REDDING, Cal., Oct. 10.—A bandit held up the Redding and Delmar stage, which carried money to pay off the employees of the Bully Mine, yesterday. D. N. Haskell, the express messenger, was shot in the abdomen, but he may recover. When the driver whipped up the horses two more men appeared and there was a running fight for two hundred yards, the stage escaping.

PROTECTED DOLL WITH DIRK.

Nurse Thought It Was Her Baby and Didn't Want It Taken From Her.

Policeman Printhall, of the West Sixty-eighth street station, found a woman sitting on a bench in Manhattan Park early to-day crying over a doll, by her side was a long dirk and a carving knife. At the approach of the policeman she seized the knife, declaring that her "baby" should not be taken from her.

The policeman soothed the woman and finally induced her to go with him to the station-house, where she said she was Lizzie Forchbach, aged thirty-three, a nurse of No. 334 Columbus avenue. She spoke of the doll as her baby "Lizzie," but could give no more information about herself. She was removed to Bellevue Hospital.

CONVICT FORD IN $5,000 BAIL

Man Who Impersonated His Dead Cousin in Civil Service Position Is Held for the Grand Jury.

John Ford, the ex-convict who impersonated his dead cousin, Frank A. Silney, in obtaining from the city a civil service position which he had quitted for and held the place ten months, was arraigned to-day before Justice Wyatt in the Court of Special Sessions. He waived examination and was held in $5,000 bail for the Grand Jury. No bondsman appeared and Ford was sent to the Tombs.

It appears that Ford, who is fifty-eight years old, might have served under Silney's name indefinitely, as he was an efficient clerk and his salary was raised from $60 to $130 a year on the very day that the imposture was discovered. Ford quarreled with his wife, and she wrote to the District-Attorney's office revealing the fraud.

The prisoner was first arraigned before Magistrate Moen, in Centre Street Police Court to-day, but the Magistrate had known his family for twenty years and excused himself from the case. Justice Wyatt then took it up. Ford is a member of a respectable Harlem family. He has served time for larceny, assault and murder, but seems to have been living quietly and attending to business since taking a city job under his cousin's name. Silney was a party to the deception. He died in 1904, shortly after Ford took a job under his name and by virtue of his civil service certificate.
